

System of a crossroads,
System of the flu.
All we manufacture,
Is everything we do.

Buildings tall and royal,
Buildings tall and stern.
State of mind circuitry
Controlled by what we earn.

A stat for every belief,
A number for every role.
Categories become ritual,
And love turns to coal.

The fight for definition,
The fight to claim the crown.
As we steer our destiny,
Life becomes a noun.
